

Autumn 1 homework - Roald Dahl

Choose at least one activity from these homework activities and hand it in, or share on google classroom with Mrs Holmes by Monday 23rd October 2023.

Choose your favourite Roald Dahl book and read it by yourself or with a grown-up. Write a book review to recommend your book to other people. You could also record your review and post it on Google Classroom.	Roald Dahl loved including disgusting and imaginative recipes in his books, from Froboscottle to George's Marvellous Medicine. Read through some examples and then create your own Revolting Recipe. You might even like to try making it with your grown-up's help!	Have a go at creating your very own Dream Jar from the BFG.  Click here to see an example!
Create a 3D model or diorama of a scene from one of Roald Dahl's books. Be creative, you could use a shoe box or cereal box as a stage. Maybe it is James and the Giant Peach floating in the sea, or maybe it is Fantastic Mr Fox's den under the tree, it could be Mr and Mrs Twit's house.		Read about the incredible Chocolate Factory in Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Write or draw and label your own version of what the children see when the doors open to Willy Wonka's factory.      You can use this sentence starter to help...  "As the humongous, ornate doors slowly swung open, the children stood amazed at what they saw."
Choose your favourite Roald Dahl Character and have a go at sketching in the style of Quentin Blake, the illustrator for Roald Dahl's books. There is a great instruction video here:  Instruction video 1  Instruction video 2	Have a go at the Roald Dahl quiz here:  Click here to take part in the quiz!      Create your own quiz based on your favourite book or books.	Design a poster to persuade people to read your favourite Roald Dahl book. Remember to make it eye-catching and include lots of persuasive language.
