

Summer 2 homework - The Great Outdoors

Choose at least one activity from these homework activities and hand it in to Mrs Holmes by Wednesday 19th July.

 Go on a nature walk and collect items to make a minibeast.	Find out about a minibeast and write five fascinating facts e.g. Australian funnel-web spiders make their burrows in moist, cool, sheltered habitats – under rocks, in and under rotting logs, and some in rough-barked trees ...	 Look at the artwork of Georges Seurat and create a 'dotty' picture inspired by his style.	Minibeast Rhymes I am a Caterpillar I am a caterpillar. Look at me, wriggle-wriggle-wriggling up this tree! Munch, munch, munch, Crunch, crunch, crunch, eating lots of leaves for lunch.  Write a minibeast poem or rhyme. Can you perform your poem?
 Find out about the lifecycle of a minibeast and record it.	Make a list of ten different trees. Collect a leaf from each one and record which tree you found it from. Can you use a leaf to make a leaf rubbing? 	Create a minibeast using a stone and some paint. 	 Create a bug hotel and record the insects who visit. Can you create a tally chart?
 Find out about some British birds. Can you spot any when you're outside?	Grow a plant from a seed and create a factfile on how to care for plants. 	 Make a den outside to read your books in.	Find out about the role of bees and what would happen if we didn't have them. How can we help to protect bees? 